The 3D Foundation supports the advancement of governance frameworks addressing data protection challenges arising from generative AI systems. We emphasize the importance of clear accountability structures, robust anonymisation practices, and transparent operational boundaries for AI-driven data collection and processing. Strengthening these foundations contributes to a more predictable regulatory environment and supports the development of responsible, high-integrity AI ecosystems.