

URGENCY PROCEDURE

(Art. 66 (1) and (2) Procedure)

DPA Data Protection Authority

A DPA can take urgent measures on its territory to protect data subjects for a maximum of 3 months.

The EDPB adopts an urgent binding decision or opinion.

The EDPB is of the opinion that final measures are not necessary.

STEP 1

STEP 2

2 WEEKS AS OF
COMPLETENESS
FILE

STEP 3

edpb
European Data Protection Board

The DPA considers that final measures are necessary and requests an urgent opinion or urgent binding decision from the EDPB.

The EDPB is of the opinion that final measures are required and instructs the relevant DPA to adopt such measures.