Decision under the General Data Protection Regulation

Decision of the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection

IMY adopts the French Data Protection Authority's decision in Appendix 1 pursuant to Article 60(8) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and closes the case.

Presentation of the supervisory case

On 19 January 2024, the complainant lodged his complaint with the Integrity Protection Authority (IMY). On 27 March 2024, IMY submitted the complaint to the French Data Protection Authority (CNIL) as the case concerns cross-border processing and Gameloft has its main establishment in France. The French DPA, having examined the facts, has submitted a draft decision in accordance with Article 60(3) of the GDPR. None of the other CSAs has objected to the draft decision pursuant to Article 60(4) GDPR.

Motivation for the decision

In its draft decision, the French DPA found that Gameloft responded satisfactorily to the applicant's request for erasure, in accordance with the provisions of Articles 12 and 17 of the GDPR. Neither IMY nor any of the other supervisory authorities concerned had any objection to the French decision. Against that background, pursuant to Article 60(8) of the GDPR, IMY is required to adopt that decision. The case is therefore to be closed.

This draft decision has been approved by Head of Unit [REDACTED] after presentation by legal advisor [REDACTED].

How to appeal

If you wish to appeal the decision, you should write to the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY). Indicate in the letter which decision you wish to appeal and the change you are requesting. The appeal must have been received by IMY no later than three weeks from the day you received the decision. If the appeal has been received in time, IMY will then forward it to the Administrative Court in Stockholm for review.

You can e-mail the appeal to IMY if it does not contain any privacy-sensitive personal data or information that may be covered by confidentiality. IMY's contact information is shown in the first page of the decision.
