Final decision under the General Data Protection Regulation

Final Decision of the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY)

IMY adopts the Danish Data Protection Authority's decision in Appendix 2 pursuant to Article 60(8) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and closes the case.

Presentation of the case

On the 29th of November 2021 the complainant filed a complaint with IMY against the webpage Falinas.com. On the 29th of April 2022 IMY sent the complaint to the Danish Data Protection Authority as the case concerns cross-border processing and the webpage has its main establishment in Denmark. The Danish Data Protection Authority has investigated the matter and issued a draft decision pursuant to Article 60(3) GDPR. None of the supervisory authorities concerned has expressed an objection to the draft decision pursuant to Article 60 (4) GDPR.

Statement of reasons for the decision

The controller has stated to the Danish Data Protection Authority that it has complied with the complainant's request. The complainant was given an opportunity to respond to this statement but did not reply. Against this background, the Danish Data Protection Authority found no reason to take further action in the case and decided to close the case in a draft decision. None of the supervisory authorities concerned have expressed an objection to the draft decision. IMY therefore adopts the decision pursuant to Article 60(8) GDPR.

The case is therefore closed.

This decision was decided by Head of Unit [REDACTED] after presentation from legal advisor [REDACTED].

How to appeal

If you wish to appeal the decision, you should write to the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY). Indicate in the letter which decision you wish to appeal and the change you are requesting. The appeal must have been received by IMY no later than three weeks from the day you received the decision. If the appeal has been received in time, IMY will then forward it to the Administrative Court in Stockholm for review.

You can e-mail the appeal to IMY if it does not contain any privacy-sensitive personal data or information that may be covered by confidentiality. IMY's contact information is shown in the first page of the decision.
