Final decision pursuant to Article 60 under the General Data Protection Regulation

Decision of the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection

The Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY) adopts the Norwegian Data Protection Authority's decision in Appendix 1 pursuant to Article 60(8) of the General Data Protection Regulation¹(GDPR) and closes the case.

Justification for the decision

On 19 April 2022, the complainant lodged his complaint with IMY. As the case concerns cross-border processing and Norwegian Air Shuttle ASA has its main establishment in Norway, IMY submitted the complaint to the Norwegian Data Protection Authority.

In its draft decision, the Norwegian Data Protection Authority found that the complainant had not responded to the request for information. The case has therefore been investigated to an appropriate extent in accordance with Article 57(1)(f) of the GDPR.

IMY and the other supervisory authorities concerned had no objections to the decision. Against this background, IMY shall adopt the decision pursuant to Article 60(8) of the GDPR. The case shall therefore be closed.

¹ Regulation (EU) 2016/679 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation).

How to appeal

If you wish to appeal the decision, you should write to the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY). Indicate in the letter which decision you wish to appeal and the change you are requesting. The appeal must have been received by IMY no later than three weeks from the day you received the decision. If the appeal has been received in time, IMY will then forward it to the Administrative Court in Stockholm for review.

You can e-mail the appeal to IMY if it does not contain any privacy-sensitive personal data or information that may be covered by confidentiality. IMY's contact information is shown in the first page of the decision.
